

The San Diego Union-Tribune

DINING AND DRINKING

San Diego's 20 most anticipated restaurants of 2021

Despite the pandemic, many new restaurants are lined up for takeoff this year

By PAM KRAGEN

JAN. 1, 2021 | 5 AM

While 2021 will most likely be a year of painfully slow recovery for San Diego's restaurant industry, 20 new restaurant projects are on the horizon countywide. Due to the pandemic, projected opening dates may be delayed by public health orders. But here's a look at some of the most anticipated projects, in alphabetical order.

Cinnamon roll pancakes at Breakfast Republic, which will add two more locations in San Diego in 2021. (Courtesy photo)

Breakfast Republic/Eggies, La Jolla & Hillcrest

San Diego's Rise & Shine Hospitality Group will open dual-concept breakfast/brunch spots at two new locations this spring. Breakfast Republic, with 10 locations in Southern California, offers sit-down brunch fare and mid-day cocktails. Eggies is a four-store grab-and-go breakfast sandwich and jarred food concept. 637 Pearl St., La Jolla; 416 University Ave., San Diego. breakfastrepublic.com, eggies.com

San Diego Union Tribune (online) features Breakfast Republic

1.1.21