

Lockdown Love Stories: TALES OF DATING, MARRIAGE, & DIVORCE DURING COVID-19

SanDiego

MAGAZINE

Our Favorite Tacos

13 essential tacos around town and where to get them

Reasons to love San Diego (besides the weather!)

PERIODICAL
SDMZ-12281
WILLIAM LOPEZ
ALTERNATIVE STRATEGIES
3180 UNIVERSITY AVE STE 640
SAN DIEGO CA 92104-3077

56573

GIVING BACK

Help the Helpers

by Erica Nichols and Marie Tutko

These local restaurants and food businesses have gone the extra mile to help their employees and community, despite experiencing their own financial hardships due to the pandemic. Why not get your next meal (or cocktail) from them and show them some love?

Rise & Shine Hospitality Group

The company behind the popular chain Breakfast Republic has been offering free meals every day over the last few months, and estimates it has provided nearly 7,000 meals to people in need. Anyone who was laid off during the pandemic can stop by the Mission Valley location daily between 8 a.m. and 2 p.m. for a free prepared dinner, which can include meat loaf, roasted chicken, or lasagna. breakfastrepublic.com

San Diego Magazine features Breakfast Republic

2.1.21